At SFU Research Matters, it's an essential component of SFU's mission, and also a major instructional activity as faculty work closely with graduate and undergraduate students in a wide variety of research settings including the Library, laboratories, computer facilities, and studies. Research collaborations extend far beyond our campuses to include many projects conducted jointly with business and industry, community organizations and agencies in all levels of government. SFU researchers are establishing or strengthening programs in areas facing the most pressing social demand, including international studies, urban growth management, public policy analysis, and health sciences.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Other program services include Specific Purpose Funds: Typically these programs are funded by grants and contracts from external sponsors, donors, various levels of government and endowment investment income attributed for spending. Expenditures include scholarships, bursaries, community services and other teaching priorities. Funds are often designated for the acquisition of buildings, furniture and equipment, including major renovations.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

(Code:) (Expenses $ 24,702,737 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 24,855,322)

The University provides goods and services with a student and community focus. Examples of such services include: student residences, bookstore, printing, parking, food, meetings and events. In 2019/2020 these services were delivered internally alone to 29,500 Undergrad students, 5,895 Grad students, 5,973 full time faculty & staff and 3,150 part time faculty & staff.
