CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY	PART VI, LINE 12C The Conflicts of Interests Policy covers all HALO employees and the board of Trustees who have a legal obligation to act in the best interests of the Charity. Conflicts of interests may arise where an individuals personal or family interests and/or loyalties conflict with those of the Charity. Whenever a Trustee or a person with whom the Trustee is closely connected has a personal or financial interest directly or indirectly, or any interest which could be perceived to lead to a conflict of interest is the level at which the charity shall determine whether a conflict exists. Conflicts of interest are reviewed by the board for trustees and by the Treasurer for other members of HALO. In the event that there is a persistent material conflict of interest which affects the ability of a particular Trustee to carry out his or her duties then the Trustee concerned should consider whether it is in the best interests of the Charity that he/ she continues as a Trustee of the Charity. In the event of a conflict considered by the unconflicted Trustees to be so fundamental or pervasive that it would be inappropriate for the individual to remain a Trustee, procedures may be put in motion which may result in the individual being asked to resign from the Board. In such a case the Trustee will have an opportunity to be heard. However, in the event that a Trustee is asked to resign, they should respect the majority decision and resign at the earliest opportunity. All employees at a senior management level (international or national) are required to produce a declaration of relevant interests, particular in circumstances where they may be involved in the procurement of goods or services, or decision making, where a conflict of interest may impact on the decision.
