01. Members or stockholder classes and rights (Part VI, line 6)

Casa Colina, Inc. is the sole Member of the Organization.

02. Member election for additional members (Part VI, line 7a)

The sole member of the filing organization is Casa Colina, Inc. The sole member shall elect the board of directors unless otherwise authorized by the bylaws. Currently, the bylaws authorize certain identified members of the board of directors within the filing organization and related organizations.

Actions may be taken by the statutory member on behalf of the filing organization without a meeting if authorized by the board of directors of the statutory member. Authorization is required to be memorialized in writing and signed by an authorized officer of the member and filed with the secretary of the filing organization. The member may increase or decrease the number of board members. The member has the final approval of any changes to the bylaws.

03. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

The 990 was reviewed by an independent accounting firm for accuracy and completeness. A paper copy of the 990 is made available for review by the Board of Directors prior to filing with the Internal Revenue Service. Each member of the Board of Directors is encouraged to review the 990.

04. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

The Governance committee of the Board reviews disclosure forms on an annual basis. In addition, the ratio of interested vs disinterested directors is closely monitored.

Interested directors are not allowed to hold office or serve on the audit committee.

Finally, a protocol has been established that prevents the conversion of a current disinterested director to an interested director.

05. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

The filing organization relied on a related organization's methods to establish the top management official's compensation. The related organization, Casa Colina Inc., used the following methods to establish compensation for the CEO:

The board maintains a compensation committee that conducted an independent compensation consultation and a compensation study. Once approved by the Board of Directors the CEO is then offered a written employment contract.

06. Governing documents, etc, available to public (Part VI, line 19)

Financial statement information is made available to the public for inspection via the Electronic Municipal Market Access website. In addition, audited financial information is provided to the public for the purpose of grant awards upon request as necessary. The organization's governing documents and conflict of interest policy are available upon request.
