Graduates from our early childhood Excellence Academies outperformed their peers in kindergarten readiness measures for six straight years. In addition, youth who attended our high-quality BLOCS out-of-school time programs are 18% more likely to meet reading standards than students in lower quality out-of-school time programs. We also supported the educational success of boys of color at the W.E.B. Dubois Academy as well as the newest school for girls of color, Grace James Academy of Excellence.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Metro United Way's United Community, which connects those in need to health, education and social service organizations to improve the speed, reliability and accountability of referrals and care provisions between organizations, was instrumental in helping to gather, analyze and share real-time data on community need during the COVID pandemic, along with our 211 resource center. Our Build-a-Bed program provided beds to 150 children in need in Clark, Floyd & Harrison Counties in Indiana, and 50 children in Bullitt County in Kentucky. A good night's sleep is critical for physical and mental health, early childhood development and academic success.
