Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The College has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that it is a tax-exempt organization as provided in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, is exempt from federal and state income taxes. No provision has been made for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements as the College had no material unrelated business income in fiscal years 2020 and 2019. The College follows guidance issued by the FASB, ASU 2009-06, Income Taxes, with respect to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. The College recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The College has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties as of May 31, 2020. The College does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months. The College has determined that its tax provisions satisfy the more likely than not criterion and that no provision for income taxes is required at May 31, 2020.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	All Interested Persons are required to disclose conflicts annually. Forms are sent to Board Members, Senior Administrators, and all Department Managers. The Secretary of the College accumulates all disclosure statements for Board Members and furnishes them to the Chairman of the Board. The Secretary of the College reports to the Chairman of the Board those individuals who fail to furnish an annual statement. Board Members and Senior Administrators who have declared a conflict of interest, or who have been found to have a conflict of interest, shall refrain from participating in any proposed transactions involving outside interest held by the Board Member or Senior Administrator. This includes consideration of the transaction or voting, unless the Board or Administration requests information or interpretation for special reasons that are stated on the record or in writing. Should a determination regarding the existence of a conflict of interest matter required an Executive Committee or Board vote to resolve, those concerned shall not be present at the time of the vote. The VP of Finance and Controller collects and reviews the forms which are not Board Members or Senior Administrators. Compliance is checked by the VP of Finance and Controller, and conflicts are resolved with the review of the President. Noncompliance is a performance issue and appropriate actions are taken.
