REQUEST FOR ABATEMENT OF LATE FILING PENALTIES

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, EIN 93-0926922, respectfully requests abatement of late filing penalties for the following reasonable causes:

The Governor of the State of Oregon issued Executive Order No 20-12 (see attached) and subsequent executive orders in response to the Covid-19 pandemic. And then on September 7 and 8, a windstorm and wildfire devastated parts of Oregon of which Lincoln County, where the fraternal organization resides, was included. This led the President of the United States to approve the FEMA 4562 Emergency Disaster Declaration.

These unforeseen events disrupted communications between the coordinators of several of the fraternal organization's projects and the office of the fraternal organization's secretary, including the volunteer who has been preparing the tax returns for the fraternal organization for the past few years. By the time the information needed to prepare the tax return was compiled, the volunteer who was to prepare the return was otherwise engaged with his seasonal occupation and, therefore, unavailable to prepare the tax return for several months. Once the situation was realized, the secretary attempted unsuccessfully to engage another tax return preparer. As soon as the volunteer return preparer's schedule cleared, the return was prepared and is now being submitted to the Service.

In order to file future returns in a timely manner, a search for a tax return preparer with greater availability has been initiated.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have examined this statement and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete.
