Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Combination of process and content learning strategies facilitates more effective behavior change because content taught is related to activities that are relevant and motivating. The organization employs an experiential, hands-on approach to teach academic, employment, and personal-social competencies in the context of real-world themes, projects, and vocational clusters. Such contextualized learning makes content relevant and meaningful for students and increases their motivation to learn. They serve a wide array of learners, all of whom have in common their preference for learning by doing. In turn, this knowledge is applied to new situations where recently acquired skills are practiced while new ones are introduced.
