Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The intended use of the restricted endowment funds are dictated by the donor which are pre dominantly for instructional purposes and scholarships. Earnings from unrestricted endowme nt funds are used for operations according to the spending policy established by the Unive rsity's Board of Trustees.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The School of Law accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. The School of Law has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as its only significant tax position; however, the School of Law has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The School of Law is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdictions. The School of Law's federal tax return is generally open for examination for three years following the date filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	The mission of the School of Law is to promote justice and the rule of law through education, scholarship, and service. In furtherance of its mission, the School of Law seeks to: 1 . Provide an excellent legal education to men and women who aspire to the practice of law or to other occupations in which both they and society-at-large will benefit from their understanding of and dedication to the law. An excellent legal education teaches not only legal doctrine, policy, history and theory, but also how to think critically about justice and the law. 2. Make meaningful contributions to legal scholarship. Meaningful contributions are those that provide original analysis, insights, or information to those who are interested in justice and the law, including lawyers, judges, legislators, policy-makers, scholars, journalists, and the public at large. 3. Provide service to the legal profession and the wider community in ways that advance justice and the rule of law.
