general statement regarding the covid-19 pandemic	The COVID-19 pandemic, the effects of which first became known in February 2020, is having a broad and negative impact on commerce and financial markets around the world. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on the Colleges operational and financial performance will depend on certain developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak and its long-term impact on the Colleges students, donors, employees and vendors, all of which at present, cannot be determined. Accordingly, the extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Colleges financial position and changes in net assets and cash flows is uncertain, and the accompanying financial statements include no adjustments relating to the effects of this pandemic. In fiscal year 2020, the College closed the campus to in-person classes in mid-March due to the COVID-19 pandemic and in accordance with directives from the State of New York. A partial refund and/or credit was issued to full-time undergraduate students for a portion of room, board and fees. Graduating seniors received a credit toward any unpaid balance on their student account with the remainder paid as a refund. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund allocated funding of approximately $1.7 million to the College. During the year ended June 30, 2020, $860,913 was disbursed to qualifying students and recorded as revenue and expense within "Government, grants, contracts, and appropriations" of the accompanying statement of activities, respectively.
