Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Higher Education: Provide instruction, research, public service, campus support, etc. for undergraduate and graduate students. (4,005 FTE students) U.S. News & World Report's 2020 rankings of 'Best Colleges' again placed Clarkson University in tier one, the top tier of national universities. Clarkson is also on the U.S. News 'Great Schools at Great Prices' list (Best Value Schools), which takes into account a school's academic quality, as indicated by its 2020 U.S. News Best Colleges ranking, and the 2018-2019 net cost of attendance for a student who receives the average level of need-based financial aid. The Princeton review again named Clarkson one of the nation's best institutions for undergraduates to earn their college degree, and also named Clarkson as one of the nation's most environmentally responsible colleges. In November 2019, Clarkson was named one of the top ten "hidden gems" colleges with the highest paid alumni by the College Gazette.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1	The University, through the Association of Governing Boards, contacts the Board of Trustees periodically to urge them to contact their legislators regarding funding support issues such as New York State (NYS) Bundy Aid and the NYS Tuition Assistance Program. Alumni are also periodically encouraged to contact their state and federal representatives. The President, Chief Financial Officer and the External Relations Office sign official communications including lobbying appeals. The office is principally responsible for monitoring government action at the local, state and federal levels, reporting significant actions which impact the University to appropriate offices, and where appropriate, to lobbying legislative and executive bodies. The vast majority of lobbying communications and direct contact with legislators or legislative staff members emanates from this office. The University conveyed its position on various state and federal issues, as well as miscellaneous economic development, energy and environmental issues.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	The University monitors the use of grant funds for research sub-awards outside the United States by requiring technical reports which are reviewed and approved by the University before submitting payment. We also have a comprehensive monitoring process by which all sub-recipients are evaluated prior to obtaining an award. Research expenditures for this program are for undergraduates, these are pre-approved by the funding agency and technical reports are submitted upon completion of trip for review and approval. All University expenditure guidelines are followed before payments are disbursed for program expenditures. Grant funds are verified in the student financial aid process according to University procedures and distributed as credits to student receivable accounts at the University.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The University provides funding to faculty and students for scholarships, research and other projects. Expenses must be substantiated under the Accountability Plan to ensure proper use of funds. Students must meet the requirements specified in the respective award program in order to receive the award. The requirements include criteria such as financial need, obtaining/maintaining the required grade point average and studying in a certain economic discipline, etc. If the scholarship is ongoing, the student must continue to meet the scholarship requirements in order to be awarded a scholarship in subsequent years. Financial need, grade point averages and other scholarship criteria are continually monitored to determine whether the student meets the criteria.
SCHEDULE I, PART III	The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act was enacted into law on March 27, 2020 as a $2 Trillion National Economic Rescue Package. Approximately $14B of the funding was reserved for higher education institutions and the students they serve through the higher education emergency relief fund (HEERF). Clarkson was allocated approximately $2,590,707 from the Fund, all of which was awarded as emergency financial aid to students during the year ending June 30, 2020.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	Clarkson University is an independent, nationally recognized technological university whose faculty of teacher-scholars aspires to offer superior instruction and engage in high-quality research and scholarship in engineering, business, science, health, and liberal arts. Our primary mission is to educate talented and motivated men and women to become successful professionals through quality pre-collegiate, undergraduate, graduate, and professional continuing educational programs, with particular emphasis on the undergraduate experience. Our community and campus settings enhance the quality of student life and afford students access to, and interaction with, their faculty. We value the diversity of our University community, and we strive to attune ourselves and our programs to our global, pluralistic society. We share the belief that humane economic and social development derive from the expansion, diffusion, and application of knowledge.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2	Bayard D Clarkson Sr. and Bayard D Clarkson Jr. are both current Trustees and have a family relationship.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The following process was observed by the University regarding the IRS Form 990: The return was prepared by management with a review performed by a qualifying tax consultant; a draft was presented to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees for review and approval; a copy of the final return was distributed to all board members before electronically filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	All trustees, officers and key employees are required to annually complete a conflict of interest statement. The statements are reviewed by the chair of the Audit Committee and addressed in governance meetings as needed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The University's top management official is the President, the Chief Financial Officer is the Treasurer of the corporation, the Vice President for External Relations is the Assistant Secretary to the Board of Trustees and the key employees are as follows: Chief Information Officer, Dean of the Graduate School, Director of Facilities and Services, Dean of the School of Business, Interim Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences, Vice President for Enrollment and Student Advancement, Dean of the School of Engineering and the Vice President for Development and Alumni Relations. The above positions' compensation packages are reviewed by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees' Executive Committee. The committee conducts a comprehensive review by using data from multiple sources (most notably, data from independent compensation consultants, the Association of Independent Technological Universities and the College & University Professional Association of Human Resources) for comparable Universities. Performance input was solicited from the full board and Executive Committee into the Compensation Committee deliberations and documented in the Executive Committee meeting minutes. This process is performed annually. The University believes its procedures regarding executive compensation meet the rebuttable presumption requirements described in regulation section 53.4958-6(c).
