PART X, LINE 2	Professional standards related to Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the School and has concluded that as of June 30, 2020 and 2019, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. The School recognizes accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions, if any. There were no income tax-related interest or penalties recorded for the years ended June 30, 2020 and 2019. Should any such penalties and interest be incurred, the School's policy would be to recognize them as operating expenses. In the normal course of business, the School is subject to examination by taxing authorities. As of June 30, 2020, and through the date of this report there are no on-going audits or unresolved disputes with the various tax authorities that the School files with.

Return Reference	Explanation
PART III, LINE 1	FINANCIAL AID (SCHOLARSHIPS) ARE GIVEN OUT BASED ON NEED AND MERIT. NEED-BASED AID IS GIVEN OUT BASED on information from the Parents' Financial Statement and uses a standardized calculation derived from a formula that is nationally accepted by independent schools. Using the tax returns and FORMS W-2, Peddie makes any necessary adjustments (income amounts, federal and state taxes, cafeteria and pension deductions, etc.) to the familys initial estimates. The Financial Aid Committee determines need by evaluating the familys ability to contribute against the cost of attendance. We base this analysis on factors including: parental employment, family size, most recent years' income and expenses, assets and liabilities, living expenses/lifestyle choices, and the number of family members for whom the family is paying tuition. Merit scholars come from diverse backgrounds and locations across the United States and around the world, and are considered for their ability to strengthen all aspects of our community and make the most of their Peddie experience. They possess a passion for learning and embody a commitment to academic excellence, community engagement, curiosity, and character. Merit scholarships are open to applicants regardless of financial need. In order to be considered, applicants must submit all necessary application materials by the January 15 application deadline (There are no additional materials required to be considered for merit scholarships).
