Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The organization's financial statements for the year were issued on a consolidated basis with the Trustees of Princeton University, a supported organization. The University is a not-for-profit organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from income taxes on related income. The University files U.S. federal and various state and local tax returns. The statute of limitations on the University's U.S. federal tax returns remains open for the years ended June 30, 2017 through the present. On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("TCJA") was enacted. TCJA impacts the University in several ways, including imposing excise taxes on certain excess compensation and net investment income, and establishing new rules for calculating unrelated business taxable income. The University has reflected the tax assets, liabilities, and payables in the consolidated financial statements based on reasonable estimates under the currently available regulatory guidance on the TCJA. The University continues to evaluate the impact of the TCJA on current and future tax positions. ASC 740, Income Taxes, prescribes the minimum recognition threshold that a tax position must meet in connection with accounting for uncertainties in income tax positions taken, or expected to be taken, by an entity before being measured and recognized in the consolidated financial statements. The University continues to evaluate its tax positions pursuant to the principles of ASC 740, and has determined that there is no material impact on the University's consolidated financial statements.
