SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2:	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the System's management to evaluate tax positions taken by the System and recognize a tax liability (asset) if the System has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the System and has concluded that, as of June 30, 2020, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken. The system is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
