EIN: 26-2852923
Name: Buddhist Global Relief A NJ Nonprofit Corporation

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Buddhist Global relief works with longtime partner Action Against Hunger to address the underlying causes of malnutrition among children in 35 villages in Mpwapwa District of the Dodoma Region by increasing the production of nutrient-rich crops and the consumption of these foods to improve dietary diversification. The project will train 1,800 small-holder women farmers in climate-smart agriculture, post-harvest management, and food preservation. To increase productivity levels sustainably, the project will promote appropriate technologies, including soil and water conservation, integrated soil fertility management, conservation agriculture techniques, and related indigenous knowledge. This project will complement existing nutrition interventions Action Against Hunger is currently implementing in the region. The proposed project will improve food security and nutrition outcomes for almost 20,000 children by improving agricultural practices, increasing knowledge around healthy nutrition, and providing nutrition screening for at-risk children.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Buddhist Global Relief partners with CARE works to improve food security and income among poor wheat and potato farmers by providing 1 wheat mini-harvesters to produce a higher-quality yield with reduced labor and 2 instructions and materials to build the seed storage units called diffused light stores DLS to increase potato production. The project will also support three cooperatives in establishing larger communal seed potato stores to serve surrounding communities. Finally, the project will support local entrepreneurs in starting mini-harvester rental businesses. This project benefits 9,640 families.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Buddhist Global Relief partners with Helen Keller International working in communities of the Poro region since 2013 to increase production, access, and consumption of nutritious foods, particularly by women and children improving household incomes and providing education related to infant and child nutrition, hygiene, sanitation, and health. This project with HKI will continue this work in the Poro region and also support the construction of boreholes and irrigation systems to provide much-needed access to clean water. In this first year, the project will train 100 health workers in 20 health centers serving approximately 20,000 people and construct one borehole and one irrigation system, serving 1,000 people.
