Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Academy of Interactive Entertainment - LA (AIE - LA) was founded in 2010 to provide world-class education in 3D animation, game programming, and digital visual effects. AIE - LA offers three certificate programs and three Associates in Occupational Studies (AOS), including: 1. Advanced Diploma of Professional Game Development - Game Art & Animation (CIP Code 11.0803). 2. Advanced Diploma of Professional Game Development - Game Programming (CIP Code 11.0804). 3. Advanced Diploma of Screen and Media - 3D Animation & VFX for Film (CIP Code 10.0304). 4. The AOS adds a fifth semester in which general education classes are taught. The AOS is a concise, comprehensive, and intensive five-semester career track providing students with skills necessary to obtain an entry level position in the gaming industry. AIE believes that adding the AOS to its offered programs will add value to a student's training and produce a better prepared job candidate. Students earn a technical Associates Degree upon completion of the general education studies. All courses were developed to support industry needs, driven by extensive consultation with local and international game development studios and visual effects professionals. Each program includes a two-year full-time course, providing individual and team centric training in the processes of developing the competencies and skills necessary to gain employment with game and film studios, related industries, and the development of graduates' independent games. In academic year 2019-2020, AIE - LA had 109 students enrolled in its courses and 17 students graduated. Game artists design the environments, create the characters and craft the vehicles for the games that you love to play. They can specialize in modeling, texturing, animation, and level design. Game art development is a dynamic medium to showcase creative ability. Students work with other artists and programmers to design and create their own unique entertainment experiences using cutting-edge game technology. Game programmers drive the game development process, creating the framework, functionality and interaction in the game. As the essential ingredient in the development process, game programmers are highly valued and in high demand. In contrast to Game Art, 3D Animation & VFX for Film students acquire skills necessary to develop exciting careers in game development, film, and TV. It is a practical course designed to give students top-tier technical training to work as 3D artists using the latest state-of-the-art technology.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

During the fiscal year, AIE - LA delivered 4 weeks of Summer Camps to approximately 40 high school students. AIE - LA in collaboration with University of Louisiana - Lafayette (ULL), and Delgado Community College made these camps available to students entering grades 9 through 12. Summer Camp is geared toward high school students seeking knowledge in 3D animation and computer programming for video games. Camps are one week in length and promote school exposure to the community it serves and is an introduction to courses students will enjoy at the college level. Successful Summer Camps are important to the school's purpose and mission as they are often the first contact students have with the school and its staff.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the U.S . Internal Revenue Code (IRS) and from state income taxes under similar provisions of the Washington and Louisiana Income Tax Codes. The Organization could be liable for unrelated business income tax, should it have any income from trade or business activities regularly carried on that are unrelated to the purposes for which it was granted tax exemption. Management does not believe the Organization has any unrelated business income. U.S. GAAP requires the Organization's management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability if the Organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The Organization has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization, and believes there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. U.S. GAAP also requires that all entities disclose the years for which its tax returns remain open for examination by the IRS. The IRS does not require the Organization to file tax returns on Form 990, "Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax". However, the IRS could audit the Organization; should this occur, presumably the IRS would do so with respect to years no earlier than 2017.
