Facts And Circumstances Test

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section D, Line 3:	Two members of the governing body of the Garden Club of America (the supported organization) also serve as members of the governing body of Casey Trees (the supporting organization). The President of the Garden Club of America ("GCA") annually appoints two members of the Board of Directors of the GCA to serve on Casey Trees' Board of Directors. Both members are chosen from the Executive Board of the GCA. Service as a director of Casey Trees shall automatically terminate in the event that such director no longer serves as an officer or director of GCA, for any reason whatsoever. Because of this relationship, the supported organization has a significant voice in the supporting organization's investment policies, timing of grants, manner of making grants, selection of grant recipients, and other use of income or assets (the "significant voice" test).

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section E, Line 2a:	The mission of the GCA is to stimulate the knowledge and love of gardening, to share the advantages of association by means of educational meetings, conferences, correspondence, and publications, and to restore, improve, and protect the quality of the environment through educational programs and action in the fields of conservation and civic improvement. Substantially all Casey Trees activities conducted are in direct furtherance of the mission of the GCA. Casey Trees was organized by the GCA in 2001 to accept a permanently restricted endowment granted by the Eugene B. Casey Foundation of Gaithersburg, Maryland. Casey Trees provides support to the GCA through its reforestation projects in Washington, D.C.

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section E, Line 2b:	Casey Trees holds title to and manages exempt use assets through its ownership of Casey Tree Farm, LLC. Casey Trees activities include tree planting and the protection of the "urban canopy."

Name: Casey Trees

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 5:	The conservation agreements and related documents state that Casey Trees maintains the following rights with regard to monitoring and enforcement policies: 1. A perpetual easement and right to preserve and protect the conservation values of the property; 2. A perpetual easement and right to enter upon and inspect the property at reasonable times, and upon prior reasonable notice in order to monitor the landowner's compliance with and otherwise enforce the terms of the easement; provided, however, in cases where holder determines that immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent, terminate or mitigate a violation or suspected violation of this conservation easement, such entry may be without prior notice to land owner. 3. A perpetual easement and right to prevent (including the right to see injunctive relief) for any activity on or use of the property that is inconsistent with terms of the conservation easement and the purpose, and to require restoration of such areas or features of the property that may be damaged by any inconsistent activity or use; and 4. A perpetual easement and right to display on the property, at its discretion such signs as it may customarily use to identify lands under conservation easement, the terms of the conservation easement or the conservation values being protected. If Casey Trees determines that the landowner, or third parties under landowner's authority or control or acting with landowner's knowledge, is in violation of the terms of the conservation easement, Casey Trees will give written notice to landowner of such violations and demand corrective action. If landowner fails to cure the violation within 30 days after receipt of notice, Casey Trees may bring action at law or in equity in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce terms of the conservation easement.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 9:	The Organization is a holder and administrator of five conservation easements in various locations in Washington, D.C. The purpose of the conservation easements is to preserve and protect the environment of the properties and permanently maintain the open-space value and character of the associated property. The conservation easements held by the Organization were all obtained via gift deed from the property owner of record at the time of donation. Since these easements have no marketable value, the Organization assigned a nominal value of $1 per easement and included them in other assets in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position. The conservation easements totaled $5 at year end.
