| Part V, Line 4:  | The College's endowment consists of approximately 1,300 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. The endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments (board-designated endowment funds). In accordance with GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. The College has interpreted Ohio's enacted version of UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date absent explicit donor instructions to the contrary. The College classifies as permanently restricted net assets the original gift value plus the value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment. The permanent endowment is not reduced by losses on the investments, except to the extent required by the donor, or by appropriations from the endowment fund. The accumulated portion of a donor-restricted fund that is not permanently restricted is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until appropriated for expenditure by the College in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by Ohio's enacted version of UPMIFA. Appropriations from the endowment are used to support scholarships and loans, faculty and academic program support, student awards and prizes, and the general operations of the College. |

| Part X, Line 2:  | The College qualifies as an organization exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. As such, the College is generally not subject to federal or state income taxes except for amounts derived from unrelated business activities as defined by the IRC. The College adopted the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the College may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the College, the continued tax-exempt status of bonds issued by the College, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. At June 30, 2020 and 2019, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. |

| Part I, Line 1a  | The College requires the President to live in a college-provided house on campus. The house is used substantially for college-related purposes including meetings and meals with students and faculty, meeting and meals with alumni and donors, and other similar events. None of this benefit was treated as taxable income to the President, however, the rental for the personal portion of the house (approximately $42,000) is treated as a non-taxable benefit. On occasion, it is an appropriate part of college activities (including fundraising) for the President's spouse to accompany her on trips. These are not frequent, are related to the Exempt purpose of the college and are not treated as taxable income. |
