Name: Jewish Federation of Metropolitan
Chicago

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Federation's largest endeavor is to allocate funds to a network of nearly 70 agencies in the Chicago area that provide assistance to 500,000 Chicagoans of all faiths, including: hot meals and groceries, utility and rent assistance, prescriptions and medical care for impoverished families; job training and placement for people who are out of work; therapeutic school and specialized care for children with disabilities; support services for Holocaust survivors; assisted living, specialized Alzheimer's care and transportation for seniors; respite services for caregivers of frail seniors and people with disabilities; counseling, prevention and intervention services for troubled teens; and an entire continuum of prevention and therapeutic services for individuals and families in crisis. Because the Jewish United Fund of Metropolitan Chicago and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago are closely linked in numerous ways (combined Board of Directors, shared professional and shared office space), and because JUF provides an annual, multi-million dollar allocation to the Jewish Federation, we measure and report our program and service results jointly for the combined JUF/Federation enterprise, which are summarized below:

1. In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Jewish Federation acted swiftly to provide humanitarian aid to tens of thousands of people newly in need. As of June 30, 2020, Federation raised $15.8 million to create a COVID-19 Relief Fund and began to provide emergency grants in the following areas:- Emergency Financial Aid - Cash grants for housing, food, medical care and other essentials; - Increased Food Assistance - Expansion of food pantries, grocery gift cards and meal programs for people of all faiths and backgrounds; - Health & Safety - Enhanced staffing and PPE for Mt. Sinai Hospital and residences serving seniors and people with disabilities; safety upgrades and PPE for camps, preschools, day schools and human service agencies; - Extraordinary Social Services - Expanded mental health services; added career counseling; assistance for families coping with extended illness; bridges across the digital divide for low-income households; and- Community Stability - Emergency operating support and professional expertise for local Jewish human service agencies, day schools, youth groups and Jewish camps to ensure future community vitality. As of June 30, 2020, Federation approved COVID relief grants totaling approximately $7.3 million, of which $5.5 million were paid out to various grantees prior to year-end. The remaining $1.8 million of grants were disbursed shortly after June 30, 2020 and Federation continued to disburse additional COVID relief grants at a steady pace in the early months of FY21.
2. While battling antisemitism and hate, JUF is committed to ensuring that every community member can safely participate in Jewish life. - Since 2017, JUF has awarded $1.6M in matching grants and leveraged an additional $2.3 million, yielding a total of nearly $4M in new or enhanced security at 88 Jewish sites in the Chicago area, helping to protect 37,000+ community members. - Grant recipients include: - 54 Synagogues - 48% of Chicago area synagogues (every synagogue that applied) - 19 preschools & day schools, 12 agencies, 3 camps and 2 colleges. - JUF also helps make additional financial resources available to local Jewish institutions by assisting them in applying for grants through the U.S. Department of Homeland Security helping to garner 250 grants for 99 local Jewish schools, synagogues and agencies totaling $20.45 million to date. - JUF regularly provides individual security assessments and consultations for local synagogues, Jewish schools, preschools and agencies, and cooperates with federal, state and local law enforcement to help keep Jewish Chicago safe. - JUF convenes regular security summits to further enhance local security for Chicago area Jewish institutions, providing training to many hundreds of staff and lay leaders.
3. JUF is on the cutting edge of service delivery to the most vulnerable, evolving to address community needs as they emerge. As 1 in 5 people will experience mental illness this year and mental health issues are accelerating among young people, JUF is at the forefront of providing effective treatment, education and support in the community. - 30,000 people - individuals with mental health challenges, family members, caregivers, and professionals alike - benefited from mental health services provided by JUF agencies in 2019. - 2,400 individuals and families received direct mental health care from JUF agencies. - 3,500 individuals received counseling and participated in support groups and other JUF agency programs to enhance their mental health. - 5,800+ professionals participated in mental health training and other capacity-building. - 13,400 community members increased their awareness and knowledge of mental health topics through JUF agencies' outreach and education events. Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Refugee Social Service Program - The Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago administers comprehensive refugee social services on behalf of the State of Illinois. The Illinois Refugee Social Service Consortium is comprised of 12 direct service agencies committed to providing quality refugee social services including: Employment, Cultural Adjustment, Case management, Community Integration Services, K-12, Youth Mentoring, Services to Older Refugees (Seniors), Mental Health counseling, data collection and reporting, and creation and maintenance of an online Salesforce database.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Hillels of Illinois - Federation supports a vast array of Jewish activities for students at colleges, universities and professional schools in Illinois. The Hillel program provides opportunities for Jewish students to explore and celebrate their Jewish identity at 16 different college campuses in Illinois, as well as through Hillel Regional programs. Hillel's vision is a world where every Jewish student is inspired to make an enduring commitment to Jewish life, learning and Israel. Hillel seeks to enrich the lives of Jewish students so that they may enrich the Jewish people and the world. Hillel seeks to create a pluralistic, welcoming and inclusive environment for Jewish college students: an environment where students are encouraged to grow intellectually, spiritually and socially. Increasingly, Hillel must help Jewish students counter campaigns by the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement to delegitimize and demonize Israel, and to address the concomitant increase in campus anti-Semitism.

Part X, Line 2:	The Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Federation's tax-exempt purposes, such as unrelated business income allocated from investment partnerships, is subject to taxation. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Federation may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Federation and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. At June 30, 2020 and 2019, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. The Federation files Forms 990 and 990-T in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois. The Federation is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before fiscal year 2017.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	Grants made by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago (The Federation) in the United States are monitored through an extensive process involving professionals and nearly 200 volunteers that includes submission of budgetary and programmatic information as well as face to face meetings with many of the grant recipients. The process entails submission and review of fiscal information (including updated budgets and audits) as well as program specific information including outcome measures when appropriate. Grants made to the Federation are then allocated to various affiliated agencies which have a long relationship with the Federation and notwithstanding this, both lay and professional leadership continue to assess the use of grants that are provided to them. The review is accompanied by face to face visits in which programs funded by the Federation are reviewed. The Federation also takes advantage of information that the grantees provide to accrediting and other funding bodies. In addition, the majority of grants presented on Schedule I are distributions made from Donor Advised Funds where the donor recommends grants to a variety of 501(c)(3) organizations.

The life insurance benefit is provided tax free to Steven Nasatir so there is an additional cash payment to Steven Nasatir each year to cover the taxes on the PS58 costs as well as the taxes grossed up. Social club dues are paid on behalf of appropriate employees conducting business at a private city club. The social club dues are a non-taxable benefit. No country club dues are paid by the organization.
