Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
The mission of The Jefferson City Symphony Orchestra is twofold. The first objective is to provide the mid-Missouri community with symphonic concerts of classical music literature from many cultures. The second objective is to provide symphonic performance opportunities for middle-school through high school age string students. The symphony, therefore, is like a one-room schoolhouse with approximately two-thirds of the musicians being adults, and the remaining one-third being students.

2 Check this box ☐ if the organization discontinued its operations or disposed of more than 25% of its net assets.
