Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

For charitable, scientific & educational purposes primarily promoting public/private partnership, advancing research and technology development, including entrepreneurship. The following were NDSU Research & Technology Park's unique programs in 2019: Since 2010, the RTP has partnered with the NDSU to host educational events and networking opportunities for NDSU students focused on innovation and entrepreneurship. See Schedule O for continuation...The purpose is to increase student awareness for entrepreneurship, encourage students to consider entrepreneurship as a career choice, educate students on resources available for entrepreneurs and engage the current entrepreneur and business communities with students. The Innovation Challenge program has been held for over ten years and the program continues to evolve. The competition focused on the innovative work being done on campus by NDSU students. Innovation Challenge was held the fall semester to align with North Dakota State University's class schedule. This year the RTP partnered with Scott Meyer, NDSU Ozbun Executive Director of Entrepreneurship to provide Boot Camps for Innovation Challenge. The boot camps were a series of three virtual and physical camps. Topics for the boot camps were: Boot Camp 1 - Customer Discovery - Who is your audience/ what do they want; Boot Camp 2 - Solution Development- Creating and pivoting your idea; Boot Camp 3 - Refining your pitch This year the challenge was expanded to include students in the Fargo-Moorhead Tri-College along with universities outside our community. Alongside NDSU student teams, there was representation from Mayville State, Minnesota State University-Moorhead, Concordia and Baylor University. At the Technology Incubator, the Organization continues to work hard to create an entrepreneurial culture that fosters innovation and encourages ingenuity. This was accomplished by providing coaching and mentoring services and networking events. In 2014, the Organization became an administrator for the State of North Dakota Department of Commerce Innovate ND program. The RTP is responsible for assisting the companies with developing a business plan, creating and executing a budget for Innovate ND funds and providing the company with coaching and mentoring. With COVID 19 affecting our area in March 2020, the majority of our clients were working from home. In an effort to stay in touch and communicate with them we scheduled frequent Zoom calls. The Innovate ND program was revamped this past year and is set up in four phases. The first three phases are a voucher program where eligible expenses are reimbursed to each participant. Phase 4 is a grant program. The RTP has worked with 40 clients in the program this past year. In June of 2008, the Organization invested in NDSU Research Park Ventures, LLC (RPV). The partnership was incorporated for the purpose of operating a renaissance fund corporation for the City of Fargo. The purpose of the fund is to raise funds to be used to make investments in zone and research park projects and to assist in financing of renaissance zone projects in a manner that will encourage capital and real estate investment in the City of Fargo which, in return, will encourage the expansion of technology based entrepreneurial business development. The project zones are located in downtown Fargo and in the NDSU Research & Technology Park at North Dakota State University.
