The funded organizations provide services which include: Providing shelter for abused and neglected children, supporting medical care for low income families, distributing food to those in need, and programs for literacy and helping visually impaired persons to successfully integrate into their communities. Due to the devastating impact of COVID-19, the Foundation then focused on the desperate need for food in Palm Beach County. The food banks were overwhelmed by the thousands of people each day who were losing their jobs and income. The Foundation was able to respond with funding.
