Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The Hindu Temple has its devotees follow the religion of Hinduism which is monotheistic and believes that God manifests himself or herself in several forms. The religion also known as Sanathan Dharma (eternal way of life) has evolved through thousands of years. It is a way of life and embodies eternal, moral values of universal principles all aiming at an essential spiritual unity of mankind. There are several different services that the Temple offers the community including those for the youth and children. It has enjoyed a great deal of interaction with other religious traditions in the community. The Temple plays an active role in the Tri Faith community organization. It is also involved in many different community service projects including health fairs, supporting other charitable organizations. It also promotes an active program of Tours of the Temple for many community groups in a 5 state circle and multiple school students as part of their religious education.

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Hindu Temple has its devotees follow the religion of Hinduism which is monotheistic and believes that God manifests himself or herself in several forms. The religion also known as Sanathan Dharma (eternal way of life) has evolved through thousands of years. It is a way of life and embodies eternal, moral values of universal principles all aiming at an essential spiritual unity of mankind. There are several different services that the Temple offers the community including those for the youth and children. It has enjoyed a great deal of interaction with other religious traditions in the community. The Temple plays an active role in the Tri Faith community organization. It is also involved in many different community service projects including health fairs, supporting other charitable organizations. It also promotes an active program of Tours of the Temple for many community groups in a 5 state circle and multiple school students as part of their religious education.
