Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Empowered Families: We made grants and provided technical assistance to 5 organizations that provide information about public education to the community and provided training to hundreds of family and student leaders. We also funded continued work to make public school enrollment easier for families.

Transformational Schools: During the 2019-2020 school year, we supported 26 schools with grants, scholarships for professional development programs, and coaching. Our instructional quality improvement work to-date has already achieved strong results: partner schools for 2+ years (serving 9,020 students) improved their quality (38% with moderate or high growth in 3+ areas) at over twice the rate of non-partner schools (18%). We also piloted a new program called the Antiracist Collective to support antiracist instructional leadership development for principals of color, serving 8 Oakland public schools.
