Personal Hygiene: MCPASD social workers reached out to the Education Foundation in April 2020 about supporting students in need with personal hygiene products. The Education Foundation helped raise funds to purchase initial rounds of supplies. To continue to meet the high demand, the Education Foundation connected with Middleton Outreach Ministry (MOM) to continue funding the program. Currently, our two nonprofits alternate funding the program on a monthly basis, and MCPASD social workers continue to organize the purchasing, packing and distribution to students. The Education Foundation is grateful for the community support, especially our partnership with MOM, of our students in need.
