The assets of the Foundation have all come from contributions or investment income from those contributions. The Foundation received an unusual contribution in the 2016 fiscal year, which led to an increase in investment income. The Foundation increased its charitable contributions significantly in the 2017 fiscal year and significantly again in 2018. This has been a difficult fund raising year with the impact of the pandemic but the Foundation still managed to public support in excess of the 10% threshold. The Foundation is continuing its efforts to increase its contributions from a wide range of donors going forward.
