990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I: Additional Information	The Foundation maintains a bonafide and ongoing campaign to solicit funds from a membership group. This membership group is made up of the donors to the UNC Center for Public Television. The Foundation provides support only to the UNC Center for Public Television, which provides the public television network to North Carolina. The television broadcast is provided to the general public on an ongoing basis. Because the Foundation's sole purpose is to support an organization that provides services to the general public, it should continue to be considered a public charity.
