Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Foundation's respective tax-exempt purposes are subject to taxation as unrelated business income. In addition, the Foundation has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be private foundations within the context of Section 509(a) of the Code. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Association and recognize a tax liability if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Foundation, and has concluded that as of June 30, 2020 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Foundation has filed their respective federal income tax returns for periods through June 30, 2019. These income tax returns are generally open to examination by the relevant taxing authorities for a period of three years from the later of the date of the return or its due date (including approved extensions).
