Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
The Model Institute for Individualized Teaching is an institution that offers services to special education and regular program students, thus promoting inclusion. We direct our efforts to impact the student, developing their maximum potential within a safe and dynamic environment. We work in coordination with the multidisciplinary team, allowing us to assertively address your comprehensive training needs. In turn, we achieve a competitive environment where the student can use their strengths to develop their areas of need. In this way, we train the student efficiently and productively so that they can perform within society.
