The Foster Care Transitional Housing Program began in 2001 offering an experience of independent living for current young adults in the foster care system. This housing opportunity is available to minors aged 17 who are soon emancipating from state care. The program provides basic living assistance including rent, food, clothing, household supplies, transportation assistance, etc., as well as support from a program case manager, mentor, county social worker and independent living advisor. In fiscal year 2019-2020, the Foster Care Transitional Housing Program provided support to 19 clients and approximately 3,566 days of care.The LINK program, or 6th Street Center for Youth, addresses the immediate and long-range needs of homeless and runaway youth in Butte County. We provide basic needs: showers, laundry services, nutritious food, warm clothing, computer access and a safe haven to give them respite from violence and exploitation. We also provide individual case management/counseling services to address immediate needs and personal goals such as: counseling, crisis intervention, tutoring, education, life skills training, employment development and family reunification.The Strategies Center at Youth for Change is a nationally recognized group providing learning and development, coaching, skills implementation, program implementation, applied research, evaluation, capacity-building, network development, coalition building, and leadership and management development services, among others, primarily to the human and social services sectors. The Strategies Center envisions improved outcomes through improved practice. Working in all 58 California counties and in multiple states across the nation, the Strategies Center puts theory into practice in diverse cultural and geographic settings-services provided are attuned to the cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic context in which our clients work. The Strategies Center has successfully partnered with Child Welfare Services, Public Health, Mental Health, First 5, CA State agencies, Offices of Education, law enforcement, private foundations, maternal mental health coalitions, oral health coalitions, community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, Native American tribes, special interest networks, multi-disciplinary interview centers, and hospitals, among others.Three Supervised Visitation Centers, opened during the 2015-2016 fiscal year, continued to provide supervised visitation services in Chico and Oroville.The Transitional Housing Plus Program (THP+) provides young adults age 18-24 who were previously in the foster care system the opportunity for emotional and financial support while pursuing goals to live self-sufficiently. To be eligible for THP Plus, a youth must have emancipated from the foster care system, be participating in the Butte County Independent Living Program and maintaining employment or education. YFC strives to work with young adults in THP Plus for at least 6 months and up to two years to assist them in their journey to self-sufficiency. For fiscal year 2019-2020, THP+ served 11 clients for a total of 1,921 bednights.As a neutral party, Children's Services (FARE) program provides case plan development, and reassessment and adjustment for families who are involved with Children's Services. The program manager of the FARE program also facilitates the Interagency Specialty Placement Unit meeting that meets weekly on Tuesday afternoons.First Five - The Paradise Ridge Strengthening Families Project provides community activities and strategies to integrate the Strengthening Families Framework's 5 Protective Factors across Paradise Ridge communities. Project activities include, increasing direct services at the Paradise Ridge Family Resource Center for families with children 0-5, create a Ridge network of agencies promoting protective factors and increasing collaboration, develop an outreach plan to provide information to residents about protective factors, create a system of parent supports, and complete assessments to further support program development on the Paradise Ridge.The Transition Age Youth (TAY) Transitional Housing Program provides temporary supportive housing for consumers of 6th Street Center and/or Butte County Behavioral Health TAY services. Eligible consumers are low-income TAY between 16-24 years of age who have severe emotional disorders or serious mental illness and are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Participants may remain in the Transitional Housing Program for 6-12 months. Support services focused on development of independent living skills needed to maintain safe and stable housing are provided throughout the program. Outcome measures include length of stay in housing, status at exit and progress towards meeting goals identified in the individual case plan.The Master Lease Program is a way to expand housing options for unserved or underserved transition age youth who are consumers of 6th Street or Butte County Behavioral Health. In keeping with the recovery model philosophy of "whatever it takes" to help consumers on their path to recovery, having housing units available is a first step towards assisting consumers achieve self-sufficiency. The Master Lease Housing Program provides permanent supportive housing for consumers of 6th Street Center and/or Butte County Behavioral Health TAY services. Eligible consumers are low-income TAY between 16-24 years of age who have severe emotional disorders or serious mental illness and are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Support services focused on development of independent living skills needed to maintain safe and stable housing are provided throughout the program. Outcome measures include length of stay in housing, status at exit and progress towards meeting goals identified in the individual case plan.Intensive Treatment Foster Care (ITFC) is an evidence-based, behavior modification program for youth age 12-18 that works with youth who have emotional and behavioral issues that prevent placement stability. When placed in ITFC, youth are immersed in an environment that is consistent and reinforcing of pro-social behaviors. Youth are mentored to develop academic and life skills, and their daily lives are structured with clear and consistent expectations and limits. Discipline in the ITFC Model involves specified consequences, which is delivered through a teaching approach. What makes ITFC unique is that it not only provides treatment to the youth, but also simultaneously works with their parents, relatives or other Aftercare Resource to teach and practice effective parenting. This combination allows the positive changes made while the youth is in treatment to be maintained when they return home. For fiscal year 2019-2020 ITFC served 1 client for a total of 340 bednights.Foster care mental health services provided needed mental health support to foster care youth. These mental health supports include individual and family therapy, rehab, psychiatric evaluations, and other mental health services as identified. All mental health services are conducted by a licensed-track professional and other para-professionals as dictated by California EPSDT regulations. In fiscal year 2019-2020, the foster care mental health program provided approximately 1,411 hours of service to foster care clients.

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Medical Support Services Program provides medication support services for youth in Butte County and surrounding Counties. Medication support services includes the prescribing and monitoring of psychiatric medications or biologicals necessary to alleviate the symptom of mental illness. These services are provided by licensed psychiatrists and nursing staff. For fiscal year 2019-2020 this program provided approximately 1,520 hours of service.The Youth for Change Foster Family Agency (FFA) certifies Foster Care homes and provides training and therapeutic services for foster parents and children placed in the foster care system. For fiscal year 2019-2020, Youth For Change FFA served 54 children resulting in a total of 11,335 bed-nights of care during the period covered.School Based Counseling (SBC) provides a broad range of services to school children. These include assessment, collateral support, therapy, rehabilitation, plan development and monitoring results. This program accepts referrals from the school districts and provided approximately 3,486 hours of services to our youth during the time frame of July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020.Strong Starts programs serves ages 0-12 who have emotional and behavioral needs. The therapeutic treatment includes various modalities: Infant mental health, Parent-Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT) to increase healthy attachment and bonding between toddlers and their caregivers, as well as strategies to deal with acting out behaviors such as aggression, tantrums and defiance; individual and family therapy; play therapy, art, Theraplay activities, and much more. Treatment is generally done in the office but may be done in the home or school, and usually involves a parent or primary caregiver, as well. Approximately 3,646 hours of service were provided to children and families for the time frame of July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020.Therapeutic Behavioral Services (TBS) provide one-on-one contact with children in their homes, the community or foster homes. Services were provided to clients from Butte and Glenn Counties. This intensive treatment allows children to maintain placement and/or move to a lower level of care. Approximately 1,377 client hours were provided in the 2019-2020 fiscal year.HAP - The Hospital Alternative Program responds immediately to a child/teen in crisis while at the Crisis Stabilization Unit (CSU) or following a psychiatric hospitalization to provide 24/7 access to clinical care as needed, crisis interventions and stabilization skills, safety planning and needs assessment to determine appropriate referrals to additional service providers and programs. HAP will also facilitate a Multi-Disciplinary Team meeting to individualize a treatment plan and elicit support from both formal and informal supports. The goal is to reduce the incidence of re-admission to the CSU and ultimate out of county hospitalization as well as provide a comprehensive assessment and treatment plan which supports positive functioning. The HAP program provided approximately 600 client service hours for the time frame of July 2019 through June 2020. The program is also credited for assisting the Butte County Department of Behavioral Health with their Performance Improvement Plan by coordinating services for high utilizer clients in hopes to provide measures of Utilization Management.The SB163/FOCUS Wraparound program provides extensive Mental Health Services to the families it serves. Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	Youth for Change is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Youth for Change in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Youth for Change's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
