Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XI, Line B	The State of Oklahoma Auditors have decided that we are to report only on the cash basis. Therefore there is no Accounts Receivable or Accounts Payable reported. No more assets will be added to the depreciation schedule. Eventually all the assets will be depreciated out. At that point, the only things being reported will be the cash received and the cash paid out. Because of the write-offs and medical adjustments, there is no accurate way to predict what will be received from Medicare, the insurance companies and individuals. Cash reporting is a better representation of the monies received for the EMS.
