990EZ, PART III - Mission Statement & Program Service Accomplishments

The mission of Look What SHE Did! is to inspire women and girls to greatness by bringing to light stories of remarkable women who have changed the world. We create short films and events featuring female storytellers celebrating women who inspire them, freely offering our library of inspirational stories to be viewed, discussed and enjoyed.

Films & Views: During 2019-20 we made 25 short films telling incredible women's stories, bringing our library of original content up to more than 120 films. During this time we also premiered 15 new films, and in total our original films were viewed more than 65,000 times on our website, social media and other video platforms. Two in-person events were held in the Los Angeles area, during which we screened five Look What SHE Did! films for a total audience of approximately 100 community members.

Production: Filming took place across 6 days this year and involved 14 female filmmakers in positions such as director, cinematographer, production manager, sound recordist, camera operator and more. Throughout the year a team of 22 female editors moved new films through the post-production process. One in-person gathering for the editing team was held to discuss new ideas and directions for the film series and share challenges and best practices. Two student interns were hired to assist on film shoots as production assistants and social media photographers.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion: In 2019 Look What SHE Did! created a guiding Diversity, Equity and Inclusion statement and began an action plan for ensuring equitable representation of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) in our film series. During 2019-20, more than
