| Part X : FIN48 Footnote | Management has analyzed its various federal and state information return filings for the last three preceding years that remain open within the statute of limitations and believes that the Organization's reported revenues and deductions are well documented and supported , and that no controversial or questionable income tax reporting positions have been taken regarding these filings nor is there any unrelated business taxable income that has not been reported. Consequently, management believes that there are no unasserted tax liabilities, interest or penalties related to these filings and, accordingly, has made no provision for contingent income tax. |
