Other	Form 990EZ, Part III, Line 28, Program service accomplishments: Our exempt purpose is to render aid to those in need throughout our community, nation, and world, by fundraising for donations and physical labor through our membership. We achieved this through many different means. We supported elementary school students by purchasing 3rd grade planners, uniforms and supplies for Lacombe children and donated money to a scholarship fund for graduating seniors at two Slidell Area high schools. We supported drug and alcohol awareness contests at local middle schools by providing funds used to buy prizes for students. We donated to Compassion that Compels and Holy Trinity Triple Negative Breast Cancer Awareness which both support those undergoing breast cancer treatments. We supported the New Orleans Children's Hospital by donating funds to a fishing rodeo that benefits the hospital. We also supported St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to help fight childhood diseases. We donated to other non-profit organizations such as various veterans in need groups, groups that support first responders, and youth expansion programs. We also collected and purchased food for the poor and delivered Thanksgiving baskets to needy families in the area. We funded several projects, and provided free labor, for persons with disabilities that needed access to their homes by building ramps and other access enhancements.
