Name: Fresno Pacific University

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Fresno Pacific University offers 90 areas of study through degrees, credentials, and certificates. Including traditional and adult programs, this translates to 38 for undergraduates and 52 for graduate students in four schools (The School of Business, The School of Education, The School of Natural Sciences and the School of Humanities, Religion and Social Sciences) and Fresno Pacific Biblical Seminary. The University serves nearly 3,500 students on campuses in Southeast Fresno, Merced, North Fresno, Visalia, and Bakersfield. Among the most popular and respected programs are business/organizational studies/leadership, various fields of education, psychology, and art. Most students are from Central California and represent its rich diversity of culture, ethnicity and religious affiliation. Many are the first in their families to attend a university, and 98 percent receive financial aid. All receive an education that stresses solid academics and strong ethics. FPU has the region's highest four-year graduation rate and is one of the top 10 Hispanic Serving Institutions nationally in graduating Hispanic students. The Valley's only comprehensive Christian university granting master's degrees, FPU is affiliated with the Mennonite Brethren Church, accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and ranked in the top tier of its category by U.S. News & World Report.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

In addition to quality academics, Fresno Pacific University is committed to providing its students with valuable services and formative experiences. The Student Life Division provides information, opportunities, and services that aid the holistic development of students and their ability to succeed in careers and graduate programs. Services include counseling, career development, disability services, health services, academic services, residence life, commuter life, housing, leadership, and spiritual development. The College Hour chapel program and outreach ministries, operated by the Office of Spiritual Formation, also enhance students' potential as vital members of society and the kingdom of God.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Fresno Pacific University serves approximately 5,500 students annually through the Office of Continuing Education. Programs are available online, through customized corporate training, correspondence and workshops/seminars. Courses and certificates are graduate-level, professional development units primarily used for professional advancement, rather than toward academic credit or a degree. Educators, nurses, grant writers, counselors, and professionals in human resources, marketing, and business management are among those who have benefited from continuing education through FPU.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm, reviewed in detail by management and finance, and then provided to the entire Board electronically for a top-level review prior to being filed with the IRS.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is reviewed and signed annually by the trustees to certify they are in compliance with the policy. Officers and board members are expected to self-report the potential for any actual or perceived conflict of interest. In addition, the Chair of the Board and President of the University monitor Board assignments and relationships with the University for potential conflict of interest. Potential or actual conflicts of interest are resolved by the President and/or Board of Trustees as appropriate. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The independent trustees who make up the Executive Committee of the Board reviews and approves the compensation, including benefits, of the President. In hiring a new president, the committee seeks guidance from the presidential search consultant and other outside professional counsel to ensure comparability with peer presidents. Two or three trustees are given authority to negotiate the new president's compensation within guidelines established by the Trustees. Documentation of the deliberation and decision is included in Board records. The Vice President of Finance's compensation is solely determined by the President and they serve at the pleasure of the President. The Board does not approve their compensation, nor is it entered into the minutes of the Board. The President did consult comparable data when determining the Vice President of Finance's compensation but the determination was not documented.
