Children's Council's Resource and Referral team helps families find child care that meets their needs through one-on-one counseling and access to a sophisticated online child care search engine. Our Subsidy Administration team helps low income families navigate complicated government financial aid programs and helps them connect to other community resources. Our Parent and Caregiver Education programs support adults in learning how to be a child's first educator and provide opportunities for parents and caregivers to develop peer support networks. Our Parent Voices chapter brings together families from all of our programs to build strong support networks and leadership skills that enable them to be advocates for an improved early care and education system in California. Dozens of families participated actively in Parent Voices. Finally, we host an annual City Kids Family Fair to help 900+ families connect to resources that support their childrens' early care and education.

Part X, Line 2:	Children's Council of San Francisco is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Children's Council of San Francisco in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Children's Council of San Francisco's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
