Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined ISI is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Management of ISI considers the likelihood of changes by taxing authorities in its filed tax returns and recognizes a liability for or discloses potential significant changes if management believes it is more likely than not for a change to occur, including changes to ISI's status as a not-for-profit entity. Management believes ISI met the requirements to maintain its tax-exempt status and has no income subject to unrelated business income tax; therefore, no provision for income taxes has been provided in these financial statements. ISI's tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities and may change upon examination.
