990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	The governing board has an Executive Committee which, with several specific exceptions, has the authority to act for the board on all matters should the Executive Committee determine that it would be imprudent to wait for the next board meeting to take action. The committee is composed of the chairs of the standing committees (except for the audit and risk management committees), the University President, the President of the PLNU Foundation and the officers of the board (the Chair, Vice Chair, and Secretary.) The board, through its policy manual and various adopted resolutions, has delegated specific levels of responsibility and authority to the University President in order to enable him and others at the University to make timely operational decisions. The President works with an administrative cabinet that has been hired by the President and approved by the board in carrying out his delegated responsibilities and in operating the University on a day to day basis. The administrative cabinet is composed of the University President, the Vice President of Finance and Administration, the Vice President for Spiritual Development, the Vice President for Student Development, the Vice President for University Advancement, the Vice President of University Services, and the Provost. The only individual who also serves as a member of the governing body is the University President.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Conflict of interest statements are completed annually by all members of the governing body, as well as officers and key employees. The statements are reviewed by the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees. The finance team also monitors all transactions for potential conflicts of interest. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Each year at the spring board meeting of the University's Board of Trustees, the Executive Committee of the board receives a report in executive session from the Associate Vice President for Human Resources which compares the salaries of the University President and senior administrators (the Administrative Cabinet) to salaries for similar positions using four different salary surveys. Following discussion of this information, the Executive Committee takes action to set the salaries of the President and Administrative Cabinet for the following year, subject to approval of the full board, and records this action in the minutes of its meeting.
