| Part III, Line 4: | The College capitalizes its collections of works of art and rare books at their appraised or estimated fair value upon date of gift. In some cases, collection items held solely for their potential educational value or historic significance, or where the cost to establish the current fair value was deemed to exceed the benefit, were not assigned value for the purpose of capitalization. Purchased collections are valued at cost. |

| Part I, Line 1a    | The President's written contract includes housing as a condition of employment. Cleaning services to the President's house are provided as maintenance of a campus owned building, which is used for institutional events as well as being the personal residence of the President and family. No material services are performed in the private use portion of the residence, therefore, the value of the services is not included in taxable compensation. The President's written contract allows for first-class travel when travelling during off-peak hours or foregoing a one-night hotel stay. The value of first-class travel was not included in taxable compensation. |
| Part I, Lines 4a-b | Former Assistant Vice President of Institutional Advancement, Megan Callaway, received a severance payment of $110,710 during 2019. The agreement is subject to a confidentiality clause; details will be provided to the IRS upon request. President Larissa Tiedens participated in a supplemental non-qualified retirement plan. A contribution of $84,000 was made during the 2018-2019 plan year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15a | The Compensation Sub-Committee is a sub-committee of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and is composed solely of independent Trustees. The Compensation Sub-Committee has the primary responsibility for reviewing and approving the compensation of the President/CEO and CFO, and it is advisory to the President/CEO with respect to the compensation of other members of the Senior Staff. In completing its review and approval, the Compensation Sub-Committee considers compensation data from higher education nationwide and regionally. All compensation changes are reviewed by the Sub-Committee and memorialized in minutes. The Compensation Sub-Committee submits the President/CEO and CFO compensation adjustments to the Executive Committee for final approval. The approval of the President/CEO and CFO compensation are memorialized in minutes. The review of compensation of the officers and key employees was conducted by the President/CEO of the College, who solicited the advice and counsel of the Compensation Sub-Committee, which reviews comparability data. |
