Schedule D, Part V, Line 1f, column (a):	Fuller is in the process of reallocating some of its resources to better meet the future needs of its operations. The first step in this process consisted of reallocating certain investments in real estate to quasi-endowment so that there would be additional sources of funding for new operating initiatives that would better meet the needs of Fuller's students through increased annual endowment withdrawals. Fuller is also in the process of developing its online degrees and program offerings as well as re-defining its degree programs and the required units to better meet the needs of its current and future students. Fuller had made cumulative temporary borrowings against its quasi-endowment to fund operations during prior years of $22,353,533. During the year ended June 30, 2020, the board authorized the undesignation of this amount. Schedule D, Part V, Line 1f is reporting a net change of $22,353,533 which is inclusive of the $25,713,000 write off and other reclassifications of $3,359,467.

The Seminary considers these instances as business related and therefore it is not included in taxable compensation. The Seminary occasionally reimburses for the travel of companions when there is a bonafide business purpose for the spouse to travel to a function or meeting. The Seminary provides a car allowance to select officers who are also employees of the Organization. This allowance is discretionary and is not part of an accountable plan. Accordingly, the car allowance is reported as other taxable compensation on the employee's W-2. Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 107, ministerial housing allowances are provided for qualifying ministerial employees. This is not included in taxable compensation. The President and Dean of SIS/SOT met the qualifications for and received a ministerial housing allowance during the tax year

The Executive Committee is to exercise the power and authority of the board between meetings of the board subject to limitation imposed by law or the board. The Executive Committee, however, shall have no power to elect new trustees, select a president or other chief executive officer, or approve any amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or bylaws.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed in detail by the Controller and the office of the CFO. The Controller then provides a complete copy of the return to the chair of the audit committee and to all audit committee members for review. The audit committee follows up with the Controller and CFO on any questions that may arise and a meeting is held to discuss the Form 990 with the Controller, CFO, and independent CPA firm. Once all questions are adequately addressed and all corrections made, the audit committee approves the Form 990 and the Chair of the audit committee recommends approval by the full Board of Trustees. The finalized 990 is then provided to the full Board of Trustees prior to filing the return.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually, officers, trustees, and key employees are required to read the conflict of interest policy and to sign and return a completed conflict of interest statement. These are reviewed by the Director of Compliance & Risk Management. Throughout the year, any transactions undertaken by the Seminary are reviewed for instances of conflict of interest prior to entering into the agreement/transactions. If an instance of non compliance should occur, the Seminary would address it and make the necessary corrections if needed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information
