| Part I, Line 2:  | Tuition assistance for applicants, who demonstrate a need for assistance, is determined by a designated committee comprised of the Superintendent, Director of Business Operations, Development Director, and Admissions Director. A third party assesses the need and provides the committee with a financial summary. Occasional scholarship funds are received. These are distributed based on the purpose or general criteria established when the funds are received. Tuition assistance is applied directly to student accounts and no cash changes hands. |
