990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt II Ln 17a	The Organization maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds fr om the general public, membership, and governmental units. The Organization has a governin g body which represents the interest of the public in maintaining and improving the qualit y of Rush Lake in an effort to provide a healthly lake environment for the community and t he users of the lake. As a membership organization, the solicitation of dues-paying member s strives to enroll a substantial number of persons from the community. A significant port ion of the Organization's support is from charitable lawful gambling (unrelated business a ctivity). The State of Minnesota allows lawful charitable gambling to only be conducted by non-profit organizations. As such, this is a form of public support for the public is sup porting the non-profit organization's charitable/program service activities by participati ng in lawful charitable gambling as offered by the Organization. The purpose/intent of law ful charitable gambling is to allow non-profit Organizatin's additional opportunites to fu rther their charitable/program service activities.
