Explanation: First, the tax year for this 990 was for 2019 and according to IRS rules, it was not required to file electronically. When the return was sent back, the staff and myself immediately completed the tax return and submitted it electronically this this service. This is a youth based organization and I feel it is my fault and did not realize that this return had to be filed electronically. Please have mercy on them for my misunderstanding of when the return had to be file electronically. It was mailed in October 2020 and did not get the letter until this week (April 5). It has been immediately addressed and filed.
