The Organization does not have stockholders, but it does have members. There are two types of members. One is the Associate member and the other is the Voting member. An Associate member includes some one who runs or operates a farm but whose average gross agricultural income is less than half their total income. An Associate member also includes someone working in Agribusiness. Someone who is not directly related to Agriculture is an Associate member. Lastly, an Associate member can hold the membership through a church, FFA chapter, an association or by a corporation not producing agricultural products. A Voting member can be a family that gets the majority of its gross income from the sale of average agricultural products. A voting member can also be held by a retired agricultural person living on an income or social security accrued and not employed full time in another occupation. A Voting member can also be held by a partnership or corporation receiving the majority of income from the sale of agricultural products.
