Part IX-A
Summary of Direct Charitable Activities

1. The location in Dillon County is being used as food pantry. We pay all of the expenses on the location including, but not limited to utilities, insurance and maintenance. We also have partnered with Harvest Hope an organized 501(C)(3), as well as local churches to provide food to the underprivileged and needy in Dillon County. The food bank is called Helping Hands and it opened in November of 2008.
2. We have purchased a property located in Dillon County to be used as overflow for the food pantry. It houses large food donations at this time. We pay all of the expenses on the location including, but not limited to utilities, insurance and maintenance. Eventually we will move the food pantry here. Then we will let another nonprofit use the old location or start a new project there.
3. Dillon County Partnership 4 Kids (Main St., Latta) – We are working with Department of Social Services, Red Cross, Department of Juvenile Justice and the Foster Parents Assoc. of Dillon County to help provide items for children. We store clothes, furniture, and other household items, so when a child has to be moved quickly we can provide needed items immediately. Also, to help those whom have lost their homes to a fire.
4. We have also purchased and renovated a house to be used by the Pee Dee Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Assault which is an organized 501(C)(3). This house is a private location for people who have been assaulted to come for help. We pay some expenses on the house including, but not limited to water, insurance and maintenance. Within the house we have set up rooms to be used for classes and training on what to look for and help prevent domestic and sexual assault.
