Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The Foundation has established a committee to select winners based on written criteria posted on the website. The funds are intended to be used for aiding the recipients college expenses. Once the award, the Foundation does not make further inquiries as to how the funds are actually spent. The Foundation grants monies to the Special Education Departments at the two local High Schools to defer the cost of their Spring Trip. All monies are used to benefit students directly. We do this because these students generally demonstrate love of learning and hard work but would not qualify for one of our taditional scholarships. The Foundation, with the help of the Elementary and Junior High Schools, grant monies to recognize elemntary age students who demonstrate love of learning, hard work or commitment to community. We believe that students who demonstrate these characteristics at a young age will become candidates for scholarships when they are in High School.
