Part III, line 4	In the thirteen years since its founding, the Enamel Arts Foundation has amassed the largest and most comprehensive collection of modern and contemporary enamels in the United States. Exhibitions based on the collection that have travelled to museums throughout the country in addition to other museum loans from the collection have helped advance the Foundation's mission to increase public awareness and appreciation of this field. Additionally, the Foundation has produced three major publications based on the collection which has helped advance scholarship on this little known aspect of contemporary craft. Our long-term goal for the Foundation is to donate substantial portions of the collection to at least four non-profit museums in different parts of the country. We intend to move forward with this plan in 2021 and 2022. We anticipate that in partnership with these museums we can achieve our goal of preservation, increased visibility, and wider appreciation for these extraordinary treasures.
