Explanation: Dear IRS Inspector, After filing an extension for tax year 2020, we completed hawkwing, Inc.'s 990 and mailed it certified mail on November 15, 2021 as we have every year since 1999. A few days ago, our President and CEO received a letter with our 990 filing that stated that we needed to e-file it. We want to apologize for this error. We pride ourselves on keeping up with all the changes that impact hawkwing, but somehow we missed this important one. Over the last two years there have been so many changes on town, state and national levels that have, at times, changed within a few weeks from one another. This important change must have been missed in our effort to make sure all of our staff, volunteers, and clients were being kept safe from Covid-19. We truly apologize and hope that as a small non-profit that has little cash revenue we can be granted a waiver to any and all fines associated with this mistake. All of our money goes towards helping people who are enduring hardships and every dollar counts to help make our efforts impactful. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to our organization. Thank you for your consideration. hawkwing, Incorporated
