Explanation: The person who originally filed this Form 990 died of Covid a month later. He was sick and had filed for an extension. Our organization had never filed late in 15 years. Since our form 990 is due on May 15, I believe he did not realize there was a rule change which happened the previous July and that the form could not be mailed in anymore. The IRS received the form before the extended deadline. We corrected this on the 2021 Form 990 not knowing that the 2020 form was not accepted. My work requires me to travel and I left town on June 8. I was supposed to return on June 21 but, ironically, I too contracted Covid and had to quarantine until July 4. I could not go to the Post office until July 5 to discover that the 2020 Form 990 was being rejected and that I only had 10 days to e-file it. Even if I had not gotten sick, only allowing me 10 days to e-file this form would not have been enough time to get it in under the deadline. I hope you consider that we have never been late in filing and that I dropped everything (family vacation) to e-file this as soon as possible even given my Covid status. This seems like undue hardship to put on someone. Please waive any penalty or fees. We are a nonprofit organization trying to help poor people. Mary D Brown

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	Procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds projects are funded by SOWHOPE using the following procedure: SOWHOPE utilizes a program strategy that is summed up as "local leaders using local solutions to solve local problems." we receive applications for project funding on an invitational basis from local leaders who already have a reputation for helping women. Once a local leader has been funded, they become a "SOWHOPE PARTNER". A project application is required for every unique funding request. The project application must include: contact information, a description of past outcomes which have helped women, a need basis for the project, statement of project goal, an action plan, sustainability plan, and evaluation plan. Qualifying projects meet the following criteria: falls under at least one of SOWHOPE's three program areas; Wellness, Education, or Economic. These programs are time-limited, have measurable outputs, and are outcome-based. Applications are received either through e-mail, USPS, or hand-delivery. The applications are processed by the SOWHOPE "PROGRAM TEAM", which evaluates each application using a rubric to determine alignment with the SOWHOPE mission, as well as expectation of effectiveness. Applications are scored and placed on a priority list and are funded once funding is available. There are two funding cycles per year. An application is either funded during the next cycle, put on hold to be considered for the following funding cycle, or deactivated. If the project is not funded within one two consecutive funding cycles, it is considered deactivated and must be resubmitted for consideration. When a project is accepted for funding, a "Memorandum of Understanding" (MOU) outlining: the Objectives, the Predicted Outcomes, and funding of the project is agreed upon and signed by SOWHOPE and the PARTNER. Once the MOU is signed, SOWHOPE either hand-delivers money (for rural projects without bank access), wires the money, or sends a check to the partner to fund the project. Reports are sent by the partner to SOWHOPE by email or phone about halfway through the project to detail progress, plus a final written report must be submitted upon project completion which includes, at minimum, a detail of financial expenditures and the number of women impacted. SOWHOPE evaluates the projects on-site at, or near, the end of the project. This is done by the president and SOWHOPE staff or volunteers visiting the field sites and interviewing PARTNERS and beneficiaries to see how the project was implemented compared to terms of the MOU, as well as how the project impacted the women.
