Open to Public Inspection

Name of the organization

North American Arabidopsis Steering Committee

Employer identification number

Part I- line 8- Other Revenue, explained: $4,726- this was a refund of monies paid in the prior tax year ('19) to reserve lodging for an exempt function, that of organizing the 2020 International Conference on Arabidopsis Research (ICAR), scheduled for July 2020. In early spring 2020 we had to postpone ICAR 2020 to 2021 due to Covid pandemic. It was then converted to ICAR 2021-Virtual (online). Therefore, we requested a reimbursement of the payment, and the amount paid out in 2019 was reimbursed in 2020, and thus it is 'revenue' but not income.

Part II- line 16- Other Expenses, explained: $3,944, business expenses including Annual business filing with secretary of state, online survey service (SurveyMonkey); Online payroll service for 1 employee (Gusto), bank fee ($70), program service refunds after ICAR 2020 was postponed (2600), annual website cost, travel for one program related activity ($159)

North American Arabidopsis Steering Committee (NAASC), was formed to forge relationships, foster communication among North American scientists, and provide North American representation to the international community involved in research and education using Arabidopsis thaliana, a small flowering plant, widely used worldwide as a model organism for basic research in plant genetics and molecular biology. The function of NAASC is to serve as a liaison between members of the community and government and not-for-profit granting agencies, to major role in planning, running, and fundraising for the annual International Arabidopsis conferences. Members of NAASC also participate in domestic and international efforts involving plant biology research and support of plant biology communities, especially Arabidopsis, research and support of diverse and inclusive plant biology communities.
