Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Charity is proved for individuals and families so they can focus on the Jewish Holy scriptures by studying, learning and praying. The Jewish people's belief is that when one helps and supports another individual(s) study, learn and pray, it benefits the entire Jewish nation especially others who are not engaged in these religious activities, but who financially support them. In addition, conferences and learning sessions are organized on a weekly basis as well as sessions for major holidays. Some learning sessions may encompass a few days. Additional charity is also provided for those in need which is required by Jewish laws and scriptures.

Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

	Yes	No
11 Has the organization accepted a gift or contribution from any of the following persons?
a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in lines 11b and 11c below, the governing body of a supported organization?
b A family member of a person described in 11a above?
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in line 11a or 11b above? If "Yes" to 11a, 11b, or 11c, provide detail in Part VI.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the officers, directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in line 2 above, did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	Schedule F, Part I, Line 2 - Rabbi Yosef Tedgo and members of the local foreign religious community oversees the distributions to individuals' charity support as well as the purchase of clothing and food for individuals in need. The Jewish people's belief is that when one helps and supports another individual(s) study, learn and pray, it benefits the entire Jewish nation especially others who are not engaged in these religious activities, but who financially support them. Rabbi Yosef Tedgo and the members of the local foreign religious community also oversee the process to make sure all recipients are truly in need and are meeting their required obligations of learning, studying, and praying. They also oversee the purchase of materials for religious events. Some of these recipients can, in the future, become learned members of their religious communities and go on to lead productive lives as rabbis and educators.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - Before any support is approved to any individual, it would have to be approved by a majority of the trustees, rabbi, board of directors, and members of the organization. The individuals that receive support are well known religious members of the community. We get to know them through their participation in prayer and our community. We also visit the individuals and their families at their homes to see how they are living, check if they have a valid need for our financial support, and determine their righteousness. The need for charity is determined by the Rabbi and other board members. Charity is given by buying the recipients essentials based on each individual's and family's needs. None of the charity recipients have been related to any individuals who make charity selections or to any of the officers or board members. Because we remain continuous contact with the recipients, we are confident that it is used for food, shelter and support for the individuals and their families. If we were to ever discovered any misuse of our funds, we would immediately terminate the relationship and take legal action if necessary.
